

COSMIC CODA

Two generations of MIT scientists figure out how to detect gravitational waves.

The story, told as it happens, begins in 1985 and ends in 2024 (minus a 30 year hole in the middle.) Many things have changed; more remarkable are the things that have NOT changed.

Turns out that astrophysicists are human beings too. Who knew?

The story features Rainer Weiss and Lisa Barsotti, with music by the world-famous
